

visit to NICC

The picture shows the visit of kgosi Kesekwaile II and wife Kentsheng Agnes Motlhabane middle to the Sunday service of Native Congregation church in Picong. They are flanked by the President of the NICC Rev. OR Moresekao(Grey/maroon robes and Evangelist: T Gaoboibe in white robes Fano re bona baeti ba Bogosi ba baneng ba tsenetse letsatsi la Tshipi go etleletsa wa le loko la lelapa mo dikolobetso tsa ngwana mo kerekeng le kamogelo ya mma mo mokgatlong wa batlhankana.

NATIVE INDEPENDENT CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH VISIT: PICONG, 30 APRIL 2023

My first visit to NICC Sunday service became a joyous celebration and experience, says Kgosi Konrad Kesekwaile II Motlhabane of Picong

This was a special Sunday for some mothers whose children were to be baptized in the church and for some young mother's acceptance to the church organisation. Facilitation of the church services conducted by elders Mr Lenong Manthe, Mrs Annah Gaoboihe, Mrs Lehihi and Mr Senyatso Mocwiri

Celebrants

The baptisms were conducted by Evangelist Thataetsile Gaoboihe, while the sermon for the Sunday was delivered by the President of the Church, Rev O R Moresekao.

His main message "When Gods Hand is over you and you put trust and faith to the Lord, the impossibilities can be made possible."

You can but your difficulties to God in prayer" surely he will grant you, your heart desires.

Scripture reading was taken from the book of Ezekiel" Ka thata ya Modimo, Ezekiel a rerela masapo/ aa omeletseng, mme a rula ele Masole sa Israel< Mookamedi a re :""fa go na le sengwe se se go tshwenyang /ele masapo aa omeletseng mo botshelong jwa gago,. "Rerela masapo ao ka leina la Rra mme a tla go utlwa"" .Eng kapa eng se ise go Modimo ka thapelo, mme Modimo o tla go direle ka fa keletsong ya gago-"A Modimo o segofatse mafoko a oa dire botshelo jwa ba dumedi ga rialo Mookamedi/ President OR Moresekao"